Canyon Outraged By Exhibitionist

Don't Shoot, Call Police Says Chief

Canyon officers this week are seeking a short man of medium build who has repeatedly exposed himself indecently at various homes over the city.

The latest rampage of violations was Saturday night and early Sunday morning.

Police Chief L.D. Caldwell said the man knocked on a door on Seventh Avenue about 1 o'clock Sunday morning. A young lady went to the door to find a man standing there nude except for his shirt.

She called police but the man had fled by the time officers arrived.

Police found a pair of men's underwear hanging on some shrubbery in the yard. The underclothing was 32 in the waist, indicating a man of medium build.

The man has been described as short, about 5 feet, 6 inches tall. Age is estimated at between 30 and 35. He has large ears and close cropped, dark hair.

Offenses of this nature began taking place about a month ago, Caldwell reported. Officers kept information under wraps for several weeks trying frantically to get a line on the offender.

As weeks have rolled by the entire town has become alarmed.

The police chief believes there is one primary factor contributing to his department's lack of clues. That is the time lag between the time the offender is seen and the time police are notified.

At two other residences where the offender made appearances Saturday night the time lag between the time he appeared and the time officers were called was about a half hour, Caldwell said. He urged anyone with a suspicious caller at night to call police immediately.

Another contributing factor to the lack of headway being made on the case is the fact that some people have wasted considerable time trying to catch the man themselves. Caldwell said that this not only is detrimental to police work on the case but is also dangerous.

"Now we don't want anyone getting out and shooting the first person they see," Caldwell emphasized. "They might be shooting a neighbor, a member of their own family or a police officer."

Caldwell gave an example. Officers were called to one home a short time back where a man was said to be trying to force entry. The woman of the house had called police.

Officers arrived to find a disgruntled husband who had returned home early and was trying to get into the house.

District Attorney A.W. Lair this week pointed out that indecent exposure before a minor packs a penalty of up to 15 years in prison.

In the meantime, officers of both the police department and the county sheriff's department are investigating the case.

One Killed In Mishap Near Happy Last Week

Funeral services for Charles Ben Elliott, 24, Happy, were held Friday afternoon of last week in the First Methodist Church of Happy.

Officiating was Rev. Walter Hadley, pastor.

Mr. Elliott died as a result of injuries suffered in a car-pickup collision on farm road 1541 about a half mile northeast of Happy Wednesday night of last week.

Four other persons were hospitalized as a result of the collision.

Mr. Elliott's wife, Cameron Lee, suffered multiple fractures of the right arm and right leg. Her condition was described as good early this week at Neblett hospital where she underwent surgery Friday.

Also injured were Garry Ken Harrison, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Harrison of Durango, Colo., Martha Toles 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Toles of Happy, and Ireta Bowe, 15, daughter of Mrs. Maude Bowe of Happy.

The Toles girl's condition has been described as good. She has been dismissed from the hospital.

Young Harrison suffered a head injury and a knee injury. He has undergone knee surgery at Neblett Hospital here.

Miss Bowe was rushed to Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo for treatment of back injuries and face lacerations. Her condition was described as fair there early this week.

Treated and released were Jerry L. Baker, 19, of Happy and Shiela Ann Davis, 15, also of Happy.

According to Gilbert Ray, investigating highway patrolman, the accident occurred at about 5:45 p.m. Wednesday. He said the Elliott car, driven by Mrs. Elliott, was traveling south along the road. The pickup, driven by Baker, was turning off onto the Happy dump ground.

The compact car struck the pickup at the right front fender, Ray said.

He added that the pickup came to rest at a spot approximately 50 feet from point of impact.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott were the only passengers in the car.

Baker and Harrison were riding in the cab of the pickup and the three girls were riding in the back. They were looking for wood for a homecoming bonfire.

Ray said he had to saw the Elliotts out of their car when he arrived at the scene.

All were rushed to Neblett Hospital by LaGrone ambulances.

Mr. Elliott died at the Hospital at about 8:30 p.m. from severe head and spine injuries.

Mr. Elliott was born in Canyon December 8, 1936. He graduated from Happy High School in 1956 and served in the army from 1957 until 1960. He then attended West Texas State College one year.

A student at Texas Tech, he was working on a degree in architectural engineering. He was a member of the Methodist church and of Sigma Nu fraternity.

Surviving are his wife; parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.B. Elliott of Happy; two brothers, Ross (a twin) of Happy and Stanton of Canyon; one sister, Mrs. Shirley Payne of Amarillo; and a grandmother, Mrs. Celeste Elliott of Glendale, Arizona.

Palbearers were Bob Henry, Phil Magness, Carl Sims, Carol Sims, Carl Bryan, Jack Ratien, Terry Don Petty and Tommy Womack.

Interment was in Happy Cemetery. LaGrone Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Board Hears Reports From Citizen Groups

Three citizens committee reports were heard by the Canyon School Board Tuesday night.

Most significant reports were made by the committees on school growth and finance.

Chairman A.W. Lair of the school growth committee told the board that indications are that school enrollment may be expected to increase at a rate of from 10 to 12 percent annually from the area inside the city limits of Canyon and the parts of the county not including the area immediately to the south and southeast of Amarillo.

Lair said enrollment from this area can be expected to grow at a rate of 12 to 15 percent annually but rapid development could cause it to grow much faster.

The committee made a study of a number of towns located on freeways near larger cities across the country.

Hosea Foster, finance committee chairman, told the board that his committee expects an increase in valuations in the district of about $1,500,000 a year. The valuation this year is $23,527,260. It is expected to reach $37,000,000 by 1970.

Jolly Home Hit By Fire

Fire early Saturday morning did extensive damage to the Sam Jolly home at 2508 Eleventh.

Mrs. Jolly discovered the fire which originated in the utility closet which houses the furnace. The closet is located in the kitchen.

Mrs. Jolly said she awoke and noticed a light coming from the kitchen. "It wasn't supposed to be there," she said. She investigated and found the house on fire.

Bill Sternberg, firechief, who lives two doors away from the Jollys, rushed to the scene and along with the Jollys, had the blaze under control by the time the remainder of the fire department arrived.

Smoke damage was extensive. The closet and door were charred. The kitchen area was badly damaged. Damage was estimated at some $3500.

The Jolly home is new. The family moved in in June.

City Building Passes Million

Canyon building whizzed past the million dollar mark during the past week, according to City Manager Bill York.

Building this year stood at $1,081,124.00 as of Monday, York said.

He said 63 permits have been issued for new residences to the tune of $821,100.00. Additions and alterations account for 55 permits and $69,796.00.

Permits were issued for 11 commercial buildings amounting to $160,738.00. Permits were issued for two churches totalling $28,500.00.

Total permits issued last year on property to be constructed by private enterprise and now on the tax rolls totalling $1,029,546.00.

Three permits were issued last year for construction at the college totalling $2,395,078.

County Retains Annex Architect

Randall County commissioners court Monday retained Russell Megert, Amarillo architect, to prepare plans and sketches for an addition to the south Amarillo annex of Randall County court house.

Megert is a member of the firm of Shiver & Megert.

Estimated cost of a 28 by 48 addition to the court house annex is $17,000. Megert said the cost would run about $12.50 per square foot. Cost for the original building at 3804 Bowie was about $11.00 per square foot.

The architect explained that building costs have advanced since that structure was built and that it costs more per square foot to build an addition than it does for the original building.

Megert told the court that he feels that the present court house is structurally sound. This came in answer to questions asked by commissioners in connection with the proposed installation of an elevator at the present court house in Canyon.

Commissioners also discussed possibility of buying a second hand fire safe for the office of County Treasurer Ruth Hill. Judge Wayland Angel was instructed to look into the matter.

Judge Angel also told the court that he had received a message from a Santa Fe Railway official in Amarillo to the effect that the Santa Fe does not feel that Randall County owes the railroad anything.

The county and attorneys for the railroad had been quibbling at length over some $265 which the railway spokesmen contended the county owed the railroad for raising some utility poles at a county road crossing south of Canyon.

Following are excerpts from the finance committee's written report.

"We have made a thorough study of the Bonded Indebtedness of the Canyon Independent School District and have had the advice and consultation of two investment companies to work with us in regard to our bond program. The Bonded Indebtedness is $1,467,400, which is approximately 6.91% of the present valuation. This is based on a calendar year, and when the remainder of the maturities for 1961 are met, there will be $1,403,200 Bonded Indebtedness and 5.97% of the valuation.

"We have received from the Columbia Securities Corporation of Texas and from Rauscher, Pierce & Co., Inc. bond schedules of $600,000, $900,000, and $1,200,000. We have studied these carefully, and it is our opinion that the Canyon Independent School District will be in position to finance an additional building program when it is needed."

Dr. W.J. Wooten reported as chairman of the physical facilities committee.

He said his committee found four class rooms available in the north junior high building and one in the south junior high building.

He said his committee would make a further study of future school plant needs using the information gathered by the enrollment growth committee. All committees except the physical facilities committee were discharged by the board.

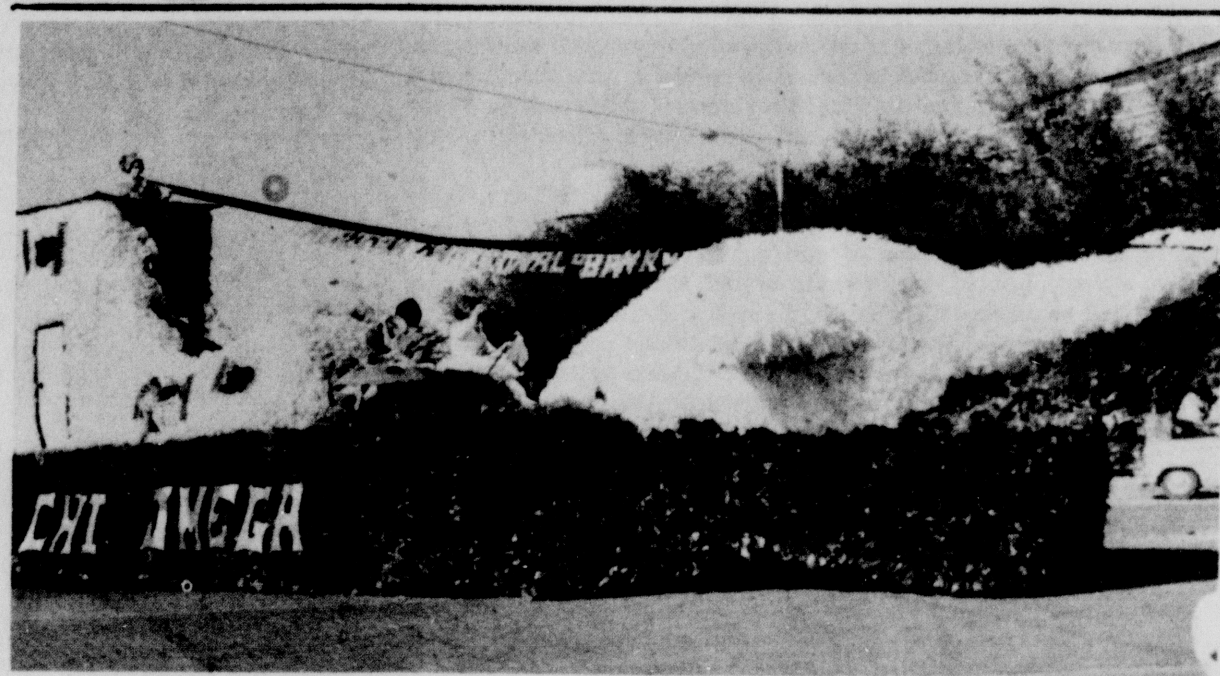

In other action Tuesday night, the board passed a get tough with vandals resolution.

"If any student is found to be guilty of breaking into the school building or involved in any other act of vandalism on school property he shall be automatically suspended from the school," is the text of the resolution passed.

Lee Foster, school tax collector, reported that collections have been slow on current taxes with only $123,573.32 having been collected to date.

Possibility of a full-time business manager for the school at some future date was discussed. Method of making purchases through a purchase order method also came in for some discussion.

The board voted to accept the school district audit report for the year which ended Aug. 31 as prepared by Auditor E.T. Cummings.

MOTHER GOOSE was the theme of the winning float in the homecoming parade here Saturday. Bright sunlight accentuated the many colorful floats and bands in the parade which was viewed by some 11,000.

Record Crowd Sees Parade As Homecoming Highlight

Probably the largest crowd ever assembled in Canyon saw a colorful parade here Saturday as a highlight to homecoming activities at West Texas State College.

Attendance at the game Saturday night has been estimated at 17,000 which exceeds all former records in the new Stadium.

Homecoming festivities were triggered Thursday with an assembly and pep rally held in the College auditorium. It was during this rally that the ringing of the West Texas Victory Bell began a toll that was to continue day and night until the kickoff of the game at 7:30 on Saturday evening.

Friday mid-night a snake dance from dorm to dorm wound its way back to the Student Union and a final pep rally was held.

The parade, viewed by an estimated 11,000 people, was one of the most colorful and polished affairs Canyon has ever witnessed. The theme of "Poetry" was carried out by the 16 floats that were entered in the parade.

Five Youths Jailed On Charges Of Vandalism

Five youths were jailed Friday following a vandalism escapade at Canyon High School and at the home of J.E. Miller, principal of the school, sometime Wednesday night.

Fined $25 and costs plus a county jail sentence of three days were Noel Ray Howard, 18, of Route 1, Amarillo; John Edward Tittle, 17, Canyon; Michael Keith Cheatam, 17, Canyon; and Terry G. Milligan, 17, Amarillo. All are students at Canyon High School.

Marvin Glenn Collier, 18, Canyon, was fined $50 and costs plus 15 days in the county jail.

The boys said they took some watermelons from a field northwest of town and then came to the high school and Miller residence where they burst the melons on porches and sidewalks.

One of the melons was thrown through a glass door at the school.

Cost of damages and cleaning will be paid by the boys, on order of County Judge Wayland Angel.

During a hearing in the county judge's chambers, Collier said he was the one who threw the melon through the door. He added that it was accidental. Collier received a diploma from Canyon High School last year.

All but Collier were released from jail Monday at 7 a.m. The judge instructed them to attend school that day.

Judge Angel said that damage and destruction at the new high

City To Have Ranger Station

Texas Ranger E.G. Albers, Jr., of Pampa will be stationed at Canyon.

His territory will include an area of West Texas and the Texas Panhandle to a line just south of Lubbock, running east approximately to Wichita Falls.

Albers is moving to Canyon this week. A more complete background story will be published at a later date.

WHAT GOOD?

(An Editorial)

A newspaper editor often hears remarks similar to "It would have been better if you hadn't printed the story," or "What good did it do to print such a story?"

It usually is heard when some unfavorable situation develops involving an individual or some event, organization or even a community.

Usually such criticism stems from the same individuals who seek and expect favorable publicity whenever the occasion warrants and sometimes when it doesn't.

Some say no worthwhile good is accomplished when a respected citizen is drawn into a court test. We submit, however, that it proves that the laws are made for everyone, that nobody rates immunity.

The "unfavorable publicity" charge was heard in previous years during polio epidemics and during floods when some individuals thought the press was doing irreparable damage by reporting the facts.

We believe, however, that an informed public is by far the best policy. There is no greater enemy to rumor and exaggeration.

This newspaper has never been an "all is peachy" type publication which reports only the favorable occurrences and overlooks anything which might tend to be unfavorable to some.

A newspaper is a mirror which reflects the activities of a community and sometimes, perhaps, that mirror will become clouded.

We believe these policies, maintained and fostered through the years, formulate an adequate reply to critics who object to this newspaper publishing some news events as they occur. --So, Sioux City (Nebr.) Dakota County Star

Hilltop Views

BY DR. J. A. HILL

Today, as I write, there came to my desk a paper-bound publication of thirty pages that sells for five dollars.--and for what it contains it is worth the money.

Most of it was written March 2, 1836, in a blacksmith shop, tradition says, at old Washington on the Brazos--a short distance off the present highway between Austin and Houston.

A traced reproduction of the original manuscript with typeset pages, this historical document is dedicated to the youth of the Lone Star State. A brief account of the fortuitous preservation of this copy of the Declaration of Independence is printed in the front of this booklet. Also, there are found here several pictures of historic characters and events, and a list of the delegates who signed the Declaration, and other information as to their ages, nativity, and places of last residence before coming to Texas.

It is noticeable that the following Panhandle-Plains counties bear the names of signers of that historic document: Collingsworth, Motley, Briscoe, Moore, Hardeman, Childress, Potter, Roberts, Carson, Gaines, Farmer, Swisher. It is further noticeable that 3 of the signers were born in Mexico, 1 in England, 1 in Scotland, 1 in Ireland, and 1 in Canada.

Of more than passing interest to the people of Canyon is a picture of the building in which the Declaration was signed and in which two weeks later the constitution of the Republic of Texas was adopted. Known as the first capitol of Texas it was owned by Noah Byars and Peter T. Mercer, merchants and partners. Noah Byars was the great-grandfather of our own Albert and Lonnie Byars.

Of course, it is the Declaration itself that is memorable; and it is memorable because of the political philosophy it enunciates. There was no Thomas Jefferson to write it, yet it has taken a respected place in the political literature of this country. Many if not all the men in that convention were well grounded in Jeffersonian principles of government.

In these days when foreign and destructive "isms" are taking root among us it is here in order to call attention to a few passages from the hearts and pens of our founding fathers 125 years ago.

In a long list of indictments of the Mexican government we find these courageous words:

"It (the Mexican government) has failed and refused to secure on a firm basis, the right of trial by jury, that palladium of civil liberty, and only safe guarantee for the life, liberty, and property of the citizen."

"It has failed to establish any public system of education--although it is an axiom, in political science, that unless a people are educated and enlightened it is idle to expect the continuance of civil liberty, or the capacity for self government. -- -- --"

"It denies us the right of worshipping the Almighty according to the dictates of our own conscience, by the support of a national religion calculated to promote the temporal interest of its human functionaries rather than the glory of the true and living God. -- -- --"

"The necessity of self-preservation, therefore, now decrees our eternal political separation."

"We, therefore, the delegates-- -- -- of the people of Texas in solemn convention assembled, -- -- -- do hereby resolve and declare that our political connection with the Mexican nation has forever ended; and that the people of Texas do now constitute a free, sovereign, and independent republic--and conscious of the rectitude of our intentions, we fearlessly and confidently commit the issue to the decision of the Supreme Arbiter of the destinies of nations."

Here we find the root system of the Lone Star State--a heritage which the people of Texas will do well to cherish both now and hereafter. For its preservation in this attractive booklet we are indebted to the Texas Heritage Foundation of Austin--an organization which is doing a fine job of preserving the history and traditions of our state. Its Executive Secretary and key figure is that dedicated patriot and former West Texan, A. Garland Adair, who for a third of a century has literally given himself to the welfare of his state and his country. He was a major factor in building the University of Texas Museum, was its first Curator, and throughout the years has been its most active promoter. The pity is that he has had to work on subsistence pay. But he never complains. He finds his reward in his unflinching service to his beloved Texas. If you are interested in owning a copy of the booklet above mentioned send your five dollars to A. Garland Adair, University of Texas Museum, Austin, Texas.

FFA Fund-Raising Method Shocking

The Canyon Chapter of Future Farmers of America has undertaken a feed shocking project to raise money for their year's activities.

Previously, the club has asked for donations from merchants in town, but this year they decided that the business firms could be spared if they could work for their own money. As a result, they have thus far given two Saturdays to shock feed on near-by farms.

The FFA needs funds each year to finance such undertakings as the Parent-Son banquet, Mrs. R.P. Jarrett, Sr., and Dr. and Mrs. R.P. Jarrett had as their guest during the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Al Williams and children, Bobby and Susan, of Lubbock, and Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Bandy, also of Lubbock. Mrs. Williams will be remembered as the former Virginia Jarrett.

for feeding and boarding the teams during contests and for educational trips that are made annually.

The first Saturday they worked on the present project, 43 boys worked at Ed Bourn's farm and shocked 47 acres, and went directly to Bob Anderson's farm where they shocked 20 acres. They left Canyon at 8 a.m. and were finished at 1 p.m.

On Saturday the 14th only 16 boys were able to work. They were later starting because they picked up a sick cow from a corral and delayed to doctor it. The boys completed 25 acres of the Pete Leavitt farm and will complete an additional 25 acres in another afternoon.

On completion of the work, the club expects to have approximately $300.00, according to Ed Dwyer and Leon Bagwell vocational agriculture teachers who work with and sponsor the Canyon FFA chapter.

CANYON RIM

A woman speeder passing through to Arizona was brought into the Justice Court of Judge Bill Wilson about three weeks ago.

Judge Wilson fined her $20.50. She didn't have the money so he let her pay it on the installment plan. She's paying a dollar a week.

Judge Wilson said the money is coming in on time from Phoenix.

"I knew it would be all right," Wilson explained. "She was tattooed with 'The Lord's Prayer'."

Clay Cooper has returned from the Wild West after harvesting his wheat crop. It was spring planted wheat and he harvested about 30 bushels to the acre.

How difficult it is to "think without confusion clearly."

With all the threats of atom bombs, population explosion and government confiscation by taxation that people have to put up with it's a wonder they can think at all.

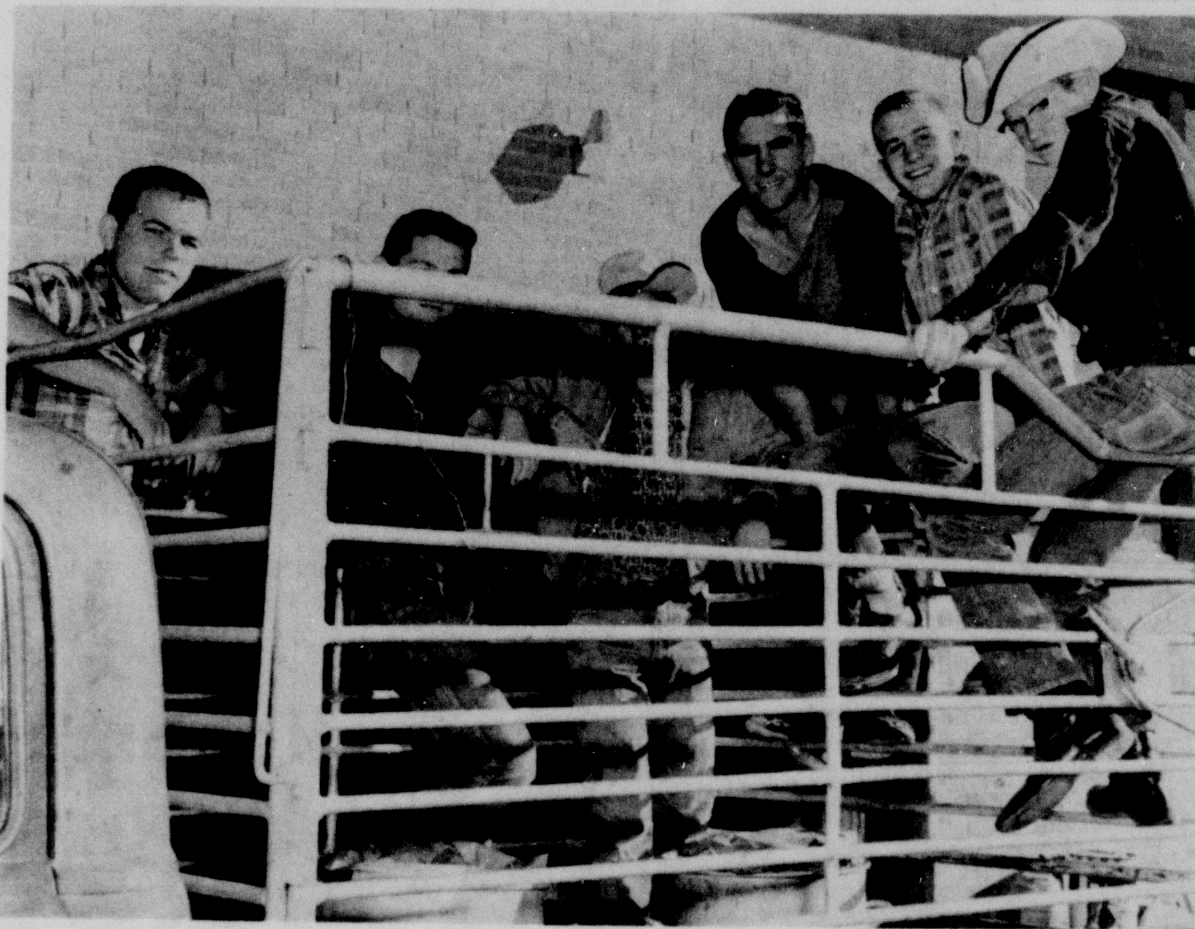

Probably the hardest job in Canyon is held by Joe Gibson, our superintendent of schools. Sit down and contemplate some of his headaches sometimes and then go on your way feeling better about your own lot in life.

Joe has more personalities with which to deal--teachers, children, parents--than anyone else in the community. Every personality that comes into a picture complicates it by just that much.

"If it comes I hope it gets me good," said Bob Wear this week talking about Nikita's big bomb. We believe that Bob summed up the feelings of most folks.

There wouldn't be much point in living in a country after a shower of 50 megaton H-bombs. Neither would we want to be safe in a bomb shelter with friends and neighbors burning alive outside.

We can think of no greater tragedy than a man shooting his neighbors and friends to keep them from overrunning HIS bomb shelter. Better to die like a man in the first holocaust than to live like a brute with such a memory.

OFF TO SHOCK FEED to earn money for the Canyon FFA Chapter are Reggis Gilbert, Charlie Roan, Ronnie Moore, Robert Ham, Elo Myers and Don Freeman.

Park Director Contemplates Improvement

By Margaret Harper

(An interview in a sky lift)
(Editors Note: Due to the fact that homecoming at West Texas State College took place at the same time as the division of responsibilities at the Palo Duro State Park, this interview was made by Mrs. Ples Harper who was working at the Park on business for the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation at the request of Mr. Troy Martin, publisher of the Canyon News.)

Sunday, October 15, marked a turning point in the Palo Duro State Park, for the responsibilities of the Park will be divided from this day on, according to Bill Collins, executive director of the State Parks Board who was at the Park this weekend to help make a smooth transition.

As announced after the meeting of the Texas State Parks Board in Canyon in August, there will be two appointed officers in the Park from now on, the park manager and the park concessionaire. For the last eight years Pete Cowart has held both of these responsibilities but as the Park has grown it has become apparent that the duties should be divided.

Cowart was asked to choose which charge he preferred in recognition of this outstanding eight years of service as developer of the Palo Duro State Park, and he chose to remain as concessionaire.

The opportunity for this interview was the ride up the new sky lift with Collins, while two naturalists who were in the Park on other business became acquainted and tested the sky lift too.

As we rode the slow steady chair up the magnificent ride to the face of the cliff we noticed the colors and the mountain ranges. We mentioned that girls with ballerina shoes would either have to take them off or tie them on or take a terrific hike to retrieve them. We waved at Mr. Poarch of Hereford who built the Sky Lift after studying the designs of several others and at his request shouted at him whenever we could touch a cliff so that he could dig out a little more.

At the top we watched for places visible from the site for the outdoor theater below which the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation is preparing to build, and discovered places on the top levels of the Canyon where scenes could be played in the symphonic drama about the Panhandle history which the Foundation has been organized to present.

We envisioned an Indian sending up smoke signals, several other Indians on horseback ready to start down a trail to the stage, some pioneers with covered wagons who have followed the trail up, and discussed ways these actors could reach the top in order to be ready to go on.

On the way back we felt the cold wind through the cliff, then much more warmth as we dropped down. Collins began to talk about new projects for the Park as we started, showing a very detailed knowledge of every one.

The first he mentioned was a trail for the horseback riders so that they could be away from the traffic, and as we rode he noted several areas for such a trail.

A few hundred feet lower we were able to see several sites for a good geological trail where people could clearly see the ages of development in the Canyon. This trail location problem brought us to a discussion of the two men who were riding in the lift behind us.

One of these men was Jim Thomas of Austin, the interpretive director working with the park planning for the Texas State Parks Board.

Thomas attended the University of Florida and the University of Texas and his work is to help people understand the phenomena they see in the parks through informative signs, descriptions and brochures, and to try to create in them an interest in preserving the riches and traditions of the parks.

Thomas has been camped in the Palo Duro Canyon for several days examining its different facets. One of the purposes of this visit here is to join with Jack Hughes of the West Texas State College faculty (geology department) in laying out a trail which can be marked to reveal the geological story of the Canyon to everyone who visits it.

Thomas' seat mate was William Carr, one of the most distinguished naturalists of this country. Carr was sent by the Charles Lathrop Pack Forestry Foundation to the planning meeting for the theater site of the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation.

His part in the Heritage production will be the planning of the grounds so that the approach from the parking lot to the theater will be a "walk into history." Those who attend the theater will have a little of the same sense of discovery that the pioneers had as they entered new branches of the Canyon.

Carr designed the zoo, museum and biological gardens at Bear Mountain Park in New York for the American Museum of Natural History. After working for this museum for many years, he went west for his health and designed the Arizona-Sonora Desert Museum - a living presentation of everything which grows and lives on the desert.

At present Carr is just finishing a trailside museum on the Ghost ranch at Abiquiu, New Mexico. He was recently called to Pittsburg as consultant on an underground tunnel which will reveal the lairs of burrowing animals and also recently advised the famous Houston children's Museum on its proposed outdoor expansion.

Carr was excited over the life at the Palo Duro Canyon because of its many unique characteristics. He remarked that it is one of the most fertile fields left in the United States today for intensive study and description - a wonderful opportunity for anyone wishing to contribute to the world's understanding of natural history.

Back in our car before reaching the ground, Collins had the opportunity to talk about the new Park manager taking over the general management of the Park on Sunday. He is Bill Gardner who is moving into the residence at the Park with his wife and three small children.

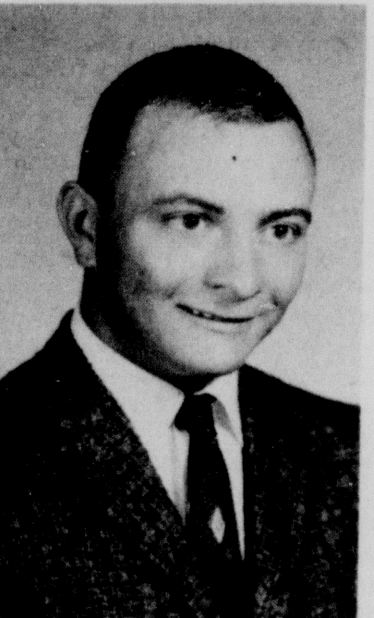

He grew up in a State Park as his father has been a park director for many years. When asked how Gardner felt about the theater, Collins smiled and said, "He understands that it is a AAL project!"

Dividing the Park responsibilities at this time will allow Mr. Cowart to devote more time to the theater where his help is invaluable since he was in charge of the army unit which supervised the CCC's construction of the magnificent Red Rocks amphitheater near Denver, Colorado, and has already faced many of the problems ahead.

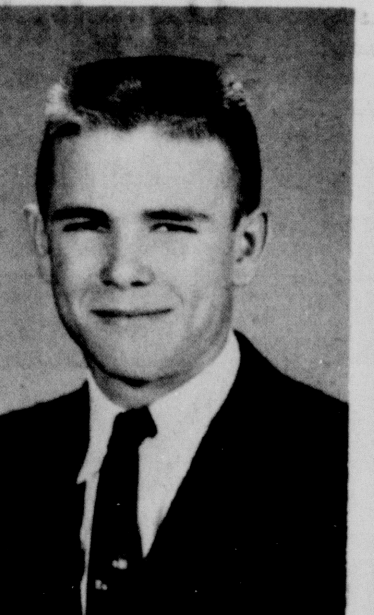

Our trip into the air was over, and we returned to carry out the first steps toward the plans which we had made while suspended over space.

Canyon FFA Boys Attend KC Meet

The new fountain has 13 stools and 3 booths. Shell said more booths may be added in the future if there is a demand.

Shell has divided his store into departments. There will be a cosmetics department, gift department and an enlarged tobacco department.

Each Christmas, Shell will have a toy department located in the extra room behind the store.

Following a new policy Shell will remain open from 8 a.m. until 8 p.m. seven days a week. "We are doing this for a public health convenience," he explained.

At the open house Friday, Shell said there will be a gift for everyone and door prizes will also be presented. Grand prize is a new movie camera.

Also, refreshments will be served.

Working with Shell will be Zora Campbell, Pat Holland, Estelle Rice, Weston Moore, Ronald Davis, and Shell's brother, Gary.

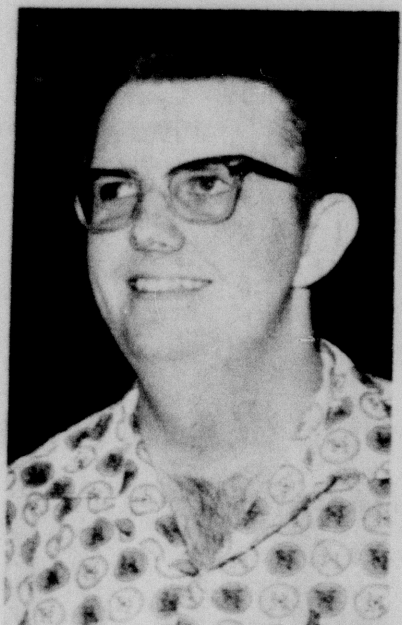

"We want to invite everyone to the grand opening to see our new and enlarged stock," Shell concluded.

Although the store is the newest in town, The Pharmacy is Canyon's oldest drug business. Wiped out by fire in April, Shell has completely rebuilt.

Before coming to Canyon three and one-half years ago, Shell worked in Wyoming drug stores. He has a total of 19 years experience in his field.

He received his pharmacy degree at the University of Wyoming, and later served in the Korean War.

He and his wife, Jeanine, live at 2508 13th Avenue. They have three children, Bruce, 10, Brenda, 8, and Anne, 4.

Buffalo Team Grids For HSU After Defeat By Sun Devils

Stinging from a 28 to 11 defeat at the hands of the Sun Devils of Arizona State, the West Texas State College turned their attention to another Border Conference rival.

The Buffs will meet Hardin-Simmons here at 7:30 o'clock Saturday night in their second conference outing of the season.

The Buffaloes had no cause for shame in losing to the Sun Devils--touted to win the conference flag this year.

The Buffs played before a record homecoming crowd of 17,000.

The loss gave the young Buffaloes a season mark of 2-2, and a 1-1 record in conference action.

A bruised leg and an alert Arizona State defense kept Pete Pedro, the Buffaloes' amazing scatback, pretty much in check Saturday. The nation's leading scorer and rusher for two weeks, Pedro failed to score and wound up with 12 yards in 12 carries. He returned five kickoffs for 110 yards, however, for an outstanding job. Pistol Pete had some good runs--one for 23 yards and another for 20--but the first was wiped out by a penalty.

After looking over the squad Monday morning, Coach Joe Kerbel pronounced the Buffs in good physical condition. All hands should be able to go full speed Saturday night in the Buffs' third consecutive home game, including 215-pound senior Bill Bradley. He missed the last two games and most of the Texas Western contest, when he suffered a chest injury.

In Hardin-Simmons, the Buffs meet a club that is still looking for its first win of the season. The Cowboys, coached by Howard McChesney, have lost to Tulsa, 27-0; North Texas, 9-7; Memphis State, 56-0; U. of Arizona, 53-7; and Abilene Christian, 27-0.

"Hardin-Simmons has faced a tough schedule," remarked Coach Joe Kerbel, "and has a better team than the record indicates. They lost a tough one to North Texas on the margin of a field goal, and have played some of the nation's powers in Memphis State and Arizona. Both are still undefeated."

Footlocker Travels Far, With Canyon Servicemen

Joe Hooper didn't know all about his army footlocker when he first found it in a stack overseas.

Joe was stationed in Germany and one day pulled the locker out of a pile of approximately a thousand for storage.

That was in the summer of 1955.

He took it home with him and he and his wife used it until time to return to the United States.

They then used it to ship items back to the states in 1957 and once here in Canyon, the locker lost its significance. It wound up in the Hooper garage full of junk. One day Joe was looking through the locker and noticed the name on top: Scott Downing. He immediately wrote down the name and army service number.

Checking with Scott Downing's wife he found out that Scott had once used the locker. That was in 1944. Downing had used the locker in the Pacific Theater.

MRS. ROYAL BRANTLEY

Has been selected by Anderson Appliance as

October Housewife of the Month"

Anderson Appliance proudly presents Mrs. Royal Brantley as our October Housewife of the Month. Mrs. Brantley teaches art in the Canyon High School and Junior High. She lives at 2600 9th Ave. with her husband, Royal, and children, John, 14, Susan, 12, Julie, 6, and Royal, 2. They have lived in Canyon 8 years now. We at Anderson Appliance first met the Brantleys about 2 months after they moved here. They had a new Frigidaire Washer at that time and shortly after we installed a new Frigidaire dryer. Since the Brantleys' both work--he, as head of the school's voice department and director of the opera workshop and she--a teacher, as well as a private instructor of the violin. Time becomes very valuable to this family. Their appliances were chosen especially to give them more time together as well as convenience. Mrs. Brantley claims her dryer is a certain necessity because in addition to Saturdays, some laundry must be done about every other evening--sometimes at 10:00 o'clock at night. Since the dryer, we have installed a Frigidaire Refrigerator, a disposal and just recently an automatic portable dishwasher. This is probably one of their proudest possessions in their home. With activities almost every night of the week, Mrs. Brantley states that "Being able to wheel the dishwasher directly to the dining table for loading saves many steps... also at the next meal time, the table can be set again directly from the machine." "Besides this," she added, "water too hot for your hands helps sterilize the dishes! Every item has helped immeasurably on the time required!" The Brantleys are a very happy active family---and certainly one of Canyon's most interesting. The children, too, are interested in scouting and active in the choir of the Presbyterian church. "Frigidaire appliances certainly hold up well," they said. "Our machines prove that, but when we do need service, Andy is always prompt!" We at Anderson Appliance invite you to select Frigidaire---Find out, like Mrs. Brantley, why it pays to go Frigidaire.

KEEPING UP WITH THE ARTS

Mary Caballero

Sunday, October 22, there will be an exhibit of paintings by Miss Terry Gay Puckett of Amarillo.

Miss Puckett, a graduate student, will have a show that will certainly be worth attending. She has a sparkle and a use of color that helps the viewer feel the spirit of the work of art.

The exhibit will be open from 2 until 4 in the WT Fine Arts Building.

The Vaughn Building in Amarillo has a large room on the ground floor and any time that you pass through the foyer, you can see an interesting art exhibit.

This exhibit is the result of the interest of Miss Puckett. She works for Parker-Ford in the Vaughn Building and has taken on the extra job of seeing that a new exhibit of paintings is hung every month. This is quite a responsibility and yet each person who is asked to exhibit is very proud and grateful for the privilege of showing his work.

You can see that Miss Puckett, art major from University of Texas, artist, gallery art collector, who is now studying art is someone very special, so be sure to attend her excellent show Sunday.

The Hove Perfumers send out the most interesting story about perfume. Back in the dim dawn of history, sweet smelling gums and resins, the frankincense and Myrrh of Biblical times, were burned (like incense as offerings to the Gods).

The word "perfume comes from the Latin "per fumen", to burn.

Records of people using perfume go back 600 years. Egyptians and Asiatics were the first users. Flacons of perfume were found in the tomb of King Tut. An Egyptian papyrus of 200 B.C. tells of aromatic perfumes. Cleopatra was a heavy user.

Egyptians were the first to develop perfume oils expressed from the rind of the Bergamot, a small citrus fruit similar to a lime.

The Greeks and Romans used perfumes extensively, the gums and resins, the Bergamot, and flowers crushed in water, the most popular of which was called "lavender" from the Latin "lave", to bathe.

The Chinese discovered Musk, the first of the fixatives.

The first use of alcohol in perfume was in Hungary in 1370 and was called "Hungary Water."

Catherine deMedici of Florence (1519-1589) is called the Godmother of the perfume industry. She married Henry

II of France, brought her court perfumer, Rene, with her to Paris, sponsored the cultivation of the French flowers in Grasse, and France thereby became the first country to obtain oil from flowers.

In the late 1700's an Italian, Paul Femmis, living in Cologne, Germany, developed "L' Au Admirable", which was the sensation of the day. It was the first of the Bouquets.

One hundred years later his descendant Jean Marie Farina, perfected it and called it "Eau de Cologne." It was a bouquet based on the Italian citrus fruits (lemon and bergamot) plus lavender and rosemary.

Napoleon liked it so much that he used over 60 bottles a month. Madame de Pompadour presented Louis XV with an annual bill of $100,000.00 for oils and perfumes!!!!!!!

The re-unions taking place this year in connection with homecoming seemed to literally tie W.T. to the four corners of the United States.

Returning to Canyon from Pasadena, Calif. was Mrs. Mamie Conner Bradford who was the first student to ever enroll in the College. From Bradenton, Florida, Clare Rudolph returned to join other members of the first W.T. football teams. A former Director of the Buffalo Band, Charles Strain, returned from the state of Oregon and from New York came Mrs. Harvey Cash wife of Harvey Cash, vice-president of the Texas Co. who is the son of Mrs. Harvey Cash of Canyon.

Registrations of former students reached close to the three hundred mark by late Saturday. The class of 1936 was observing their twenty-fifth reunion and some fifty members of the class, plus more than twenty-five guests, met in the Blue Room of the College cafeteria to celebrate.

Former "T" Club members ranging from the first team in 1911, up to the 1960 team were honored in a pre-game march and introduction. More than fifty former "T" Club members returned to the campus for the celebration which included special honor to five members of the original foot-ball team.

Special guests recognized during the game were Ted Springer of Amarillo, state representative; Walter Rogers of Pampa, United States Congressman representing the 18th Congressional District; Grady Hazlewood, member of the Senate of Texas; and Wes Izzard editor of the Amarillo Daily News, J. W. Buchanan of Dallas, State Representative.

A bar-b-que, catered by Walter Jetton of Fort Worth served about 4,000 people on Saturday afternoon.

The classes of 1910-1915 held a reunion in Randall Hall and thirty-six Alumni registered from these classes.

The game itself was played before a crowd estimated at 17,000 people. Pre-game activities included an introduction of the Queen and her attendants, and the announcement of the winning floats and dorms in the decoration contest.

The Dalhart band, under the direction of Jim Restine, a W.T. graduate participated in the pre-game festivities.

At Half time the Harvester Band of Pampa, under the direction of W.E. Treago, who also is a graduate of West Texas State, demonstrated the musical and marching abilities that led to its selection of Number One High School Band in the nation last December. The W.T. Buffalo Band, directed by Dr. Ted Crager and Roy Durden, presented a Salute to the Ex's.

New Officers of the Ex-Student Association were installed during the week-end. They include: Joe Fortenberry, Amarillo, president; Frank Barrett, Hereford, First Vice-President; Don Standley, Canyon, Second vice president; and Mrs. Harold Hagemeier, Amarillo, Fred Baird, Hereford, and Murphy White, Canyon, members of the Board of Directors.

Farmers Hear Grain Program Explained

One hundred and seventy five Randall County wheat farmers attended the wheat and barley meeting held Tuesday night at the Canyon High School Auditorium. The meeting was held to explain the procedure for program participation for 1962.

John Brazzil, Randall County Agent, presided at the meeting. The program details were handled by Doyle Thomas, Randall County ASC, and Richard Alexander, farmer fieldman for ASC from Amarillo.

Thomas said that wheat producers would have until Dec. 1, 1961 to sign up for the program. A minimum of 10% diversion will be required for program participation. An additional 30% may be diverted at the option of the producer. An adjustment in the percent diverted may be made later on in the program year. Grazing on the diverted land is permissible at least until March 15, 1962.

Mr. and Mrs. Richmond Hales have returned from Dallas where they attended the State Fair of Texas.

An advance payment will be made to participants as was the case with the feed grain program.

For diverting a portion of the wheat acres producers will be paid at the rate of 45% for the first 10% and the acres above 10% will be paid for at the rate of 60%. The payment is based on the yield history on each farm for the years 1959 and 1960. The percentage payment represents the gross income from wheat figures at about two dollars per bushel.

There will be no cross-compliance features between barley and wheat, but cross-compliance will be in effect between barley and feed grains. Additional program details may be secured from the Randall County ASC or the County Agent's Office.

The County and community committeemen present were introduced. Kenneth Erwin is chairman of the County Committee. John E. (Jack) Frost is Vice-Chairman and John Plank is member.

This week The Canyon News visits W.E. Hill & Sons Feed Store. It is now located at 1709 5th Avenue here in Canyon.

Hill & Sons is probably the most unusual type of business in Canyon, in that a good part of their feed service is handled by a new, highly intricate mobile feed mill mounted on a truck. This "on-the-farm" service has many advantages--one of the main ones is that Hill does custom grinding and mixing using the farmers grain and roughage. Hill can also supply concentrates to make a complete feed ration. "It saves you labor," he states, "There's no scooping, and the feed is air unloaded." He went on to explain that their service eliminates long, expensive trips to town. It saves time, grinds and mixes up to 10 tons per hour. Liquid molasses can be "hot" blended into feed accurately metered in any amount up to 35%. There are no lumps.

One of the points most interesting to this reporter is that Hill can mix your ration, then fill your feeders directly from the truck.

For Hog farmers with automatic waterers, this means practically no labor at all. The Mobile Feed Service is on a route system operated regularly. In the Feed Store Hill is assisted by his wife, Jim Ada, who is quite familiar with the whole phase of operation.

In addition to the mobile mill, the store handles all Superior Feeds and Concentrates. "The Best for professional results," they invite you in to just compare prices or to just look around.

You can buy livestock feeders, metal grainers, bulk tanks and a complete live of Bower's Poultry and Livestock insecticide applicators. Hill guarantees it to keep flies, lice and mosquitos off cattle or it doesn't cost you a cent. Besides his wife, Jim Ada, Hill's Sons, Raymond and Jimmy work there. Jimmy is absent now, serving in the US Marines.

In closing Mr. Hill reminded me "if we don't have what you need-- we can get it!" Why don't you give him a try! Watch too, for their Grand Opening coming up this fall.

O.A. May Was Canyon's Version Of Old Day Village Blacksmith

Dynamite comes in small packages as attested by O. A. May, 2000 Third Avenue. May served the community as blacksmith from 1903 until 1931. Although he never weighed more than 115 pounds, he could shoe toughest horses and repair the largest machinery with ability equal to any large brawny blacksmith of his day.

Only once did he have a horse that "turned him every way but loose." This occurred when he was shoeing a stallion in a shop which had a wooden floor. The floor was slick, and as the horse shifted about, it caught a foot in May's apron string. May always cut the strings off his apron after this.

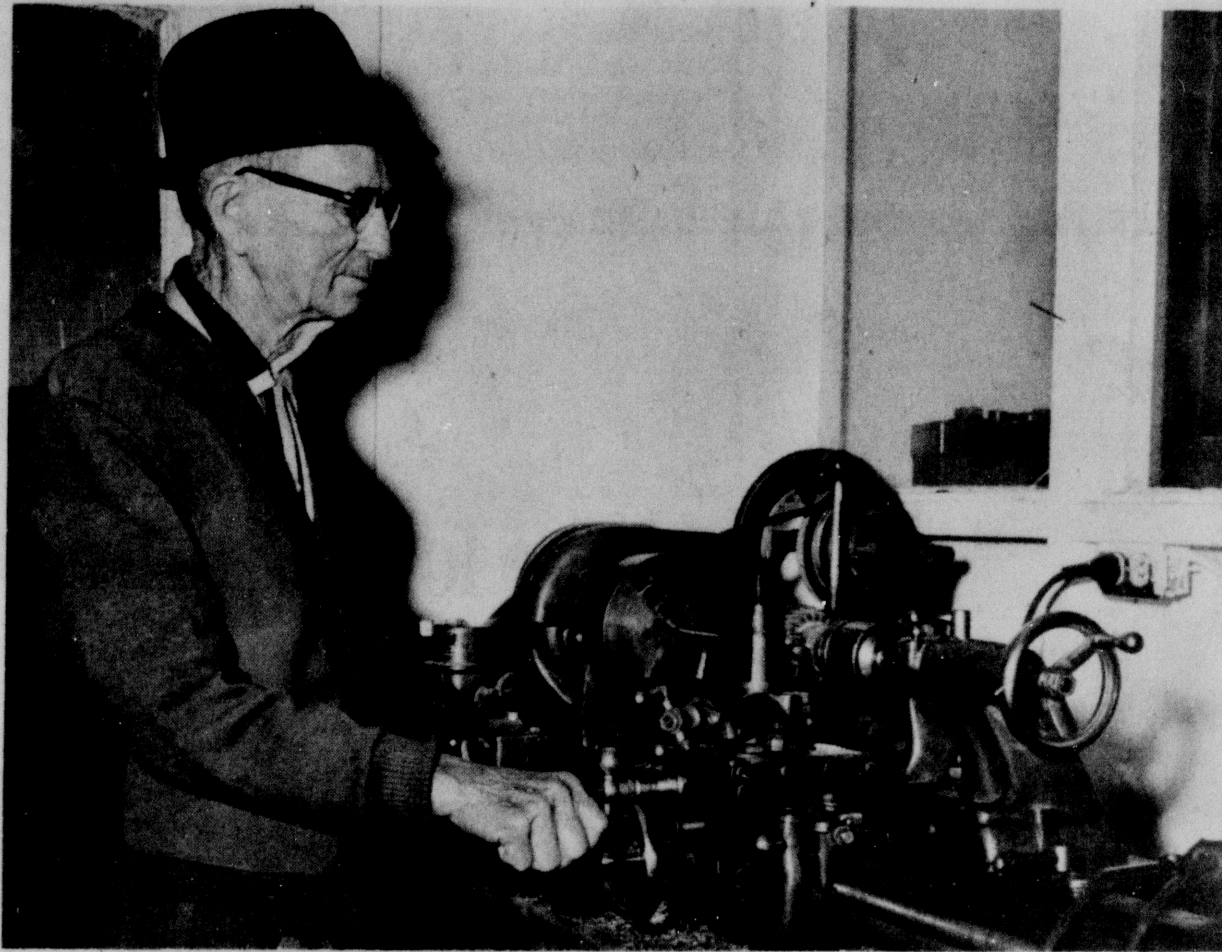

Born in a log cabin near Livingston, Missouri, in 1880, May grew up around horses. Because of his light weight it was only natural that he became a jockey. The highlight of most fairs in Missouri was the horse racing, and May rode to many a victory. One time the notorious Frank James started the races by the crack of a whip.

O.A. May stopped in Canyon in 1902 while on his way to Socorro, New Mexico, to work on an uncle's ranch. While in Canyon he learned that the uncle had sold the ranch, and no job was in the offing. He had no intention of staying here, but a fellow was hunting someone to work, and May took the job.

In 1903, May and M.S. Slower bought the blacksmith shop from John Knight. May traded a bay horse and a Studebaker buggy for his interest in the shop. This bay was later to sell for $1500 and was used as a polo pony.

All May knew at this time about blacksmithing was how to shoe a horse and how to make fish gigs out of a pitchfork, both learned in Missouri. Needless to say there wasn't much demand for fish gigs in the dry Panhandle. In addition to shoeing horses much work was done on horse drawn conveyances, steam engines and farm machinery.

He also did metal work on the original college building which burned in 1914, and on its replacement. Today the old site of May's shop is occupied by Art Roberts welding shop. This site has been occupied by the same type of business longer than any other in Canyon.

Ora Allen May and Pearl Redborn were married in Canyon in 1906. They have one daughter, Lila, now Mrs. Alvin McDonald.

Despite his eighty-one years,

WT Calves Meet Cadets

West Texas State's freshman football team will go after its second win of the season Friday night against the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs.

Alderete Rites Held Saturday

Funeral services for Benito E. Alderete, 65, were held Saturday at 10 a.m. in St. Ann's Church, Father James Comiskey of St. Ann's Catholic Church officiating.

Alderete died Wednesday, October 11, in the Veteran's Hospital in Amarillo. He had been there since September 18.

A resident of Canyon since 1939, Alderete was a retired butcher. He worked at Taylor and Sons. He was a member of the Catholic Church and a veteran of World War I.

He is survived by his wife, Lena; three sons, Benito and Joe of Canyon and Eugene of Amarillo; three daughters, Mrs. Isabelle Rosales of San Antonio, Mrs. Estelle Andrada of Umbarger and Lois Jean of Canyon; 14 grandchildren; two step sons, Louis Luna of Canyon and Ignacio Luna of Canyon; one step daughter, Delma Gonzales of Umbarger; two brothers, George and Felix of San Antonio; and one sister, Panfilia Esquivel of San Antonio.

Burial was in Dreamland Cemetery. LaGrone Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Crooks Hit Machines At School

Thieves entered the junior high and elementary school buildings sometime Thursday night and broke into vending machines cash boxes and attempted to open a safe at the elementary school, according to Sheriff L.S. Johnston.

The Sheriff said he received a call from the janitor at the elementary school Friday morning and while he was there investigating a call came from the junior high school.

Entry at both schools was made by breaking windows. Two cash boxes were taken from the junior high safe. The safe has been unlocked since the last attempt to enter it was made.

Vending machines at both schools had been open and the money was taken.

Burglars were unsuccessful in opening the elementary safe.

Park Ranger Is Appointed

JOE HOBBS

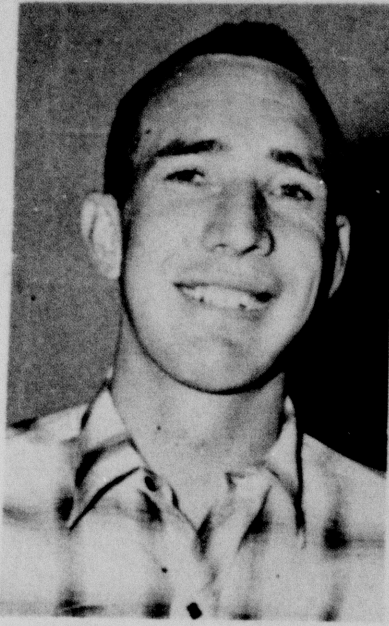

JOE HOBBS, Amarillo, sophomore: "I came to West Texas State because I like it. It is one of the best schools anywhere and you just can't beat it. It's not a society school. I'm majoring in business and I think the courses offered are adequate for my field. I also like its nearness to my home."

KENNETH ARMSTRONG

MRS. FRANCES DUNCAN, Gruver, elementary education: "I am attending West Texas State because I like it. I felt that as a small school it would be friendlier than a larger school. It is close to home and I think its education department is second to none."

Coon Dog's Bay Is Music To Bill Brundige

Bill Brundige is no different from other "hound dog man" when it comes to talking about his dogs—they're tops.

And the sport of coon hunting with the dogs is the best sport in the world to him. Owning three dogs, Brundige averages two hunts a week during the fall and winter months. Then, in the summer he goes out just enough to keep the dogs in shape.

Composing his pack are Ranger, a large, grizzly hound of Walker blood; Preacher, a blue tick; and Trig, a brown and black hound.

Each one has a distinct personality and hunting style.

Ranger is the roughest of the group and has a habit of not getting along with other members of the canine world. Preacher, who has a "golden" voice, is a good mixer with other dogs. Newest member of the pack is Trig. His outstanding quality is the ability to pick up a cold scent. When working together on the trail each has his place. Trig starts the trail and the others chime in. Preacher and Ranger do most of the heavy work after treeing the coon.

Brundige has hunted here for the last five years. During that period Brundige estimates he has caught from three to four hundred coons.

"We train our dogs for coons and do not desire to hunt any other animal," Brundige said. "We occasionally strike a bob cat but try to discourage the dogs from trailing them."

Brundige said the best place in this area are the tributary canyons to Palo Duro. He added that they average a coon about every other hunt.

Technique seldom varies in a hunt. First, the dogs are let out to stretch, run around and then serious business starts.

They work back and forth in the small canyons until they strike the trail. It's the chase and finally the "tree."

By listening to the hounds, he knows exactly how the hunt is progressing. On the trail the dogs will let loose with short, choppy barks. As it becomes "warmer," or as the dogs get closer to their prey, the barking becomes more intense. Finally, there's the "treed" bark which is a deep baying bark.

Working in the canyons Brundige is faced with many situations. Sometimes the coons will go up a tree and then other times they will go up on a ledge or go into a hole.

One fear he has is that of the dogs catching the animal in water.

"It can be fatal for a dog if he gets out in the water by himself," Brundige said. "A coon can drown a dog with little effort."

Any place a coon is treed, it spells work for the hunter. Many times one of them will have to climb the tree to shake out the coon. If it's on a ledge or in a hole, they have to figure out a way to bring the coon to the dogs.

The trailing usually lasts about two hours. Fastest catch he ever made was in five minutes. Brundige said his longest trail lasted a little over five hours.

Biggest coon he ever caught was two years ago. It weighed 33 pounds. They usually average from 20 to 25 pounds.

Brundige always tries to take two people with him on hunts. During snake season he likes to take more. He has never raised his own dogs.

"It's much too costly to raise dogs if you are planning on using only two or three," Brundige said. "I've bought every dog I've ever had."

Usual cost is approximately $150 each.

BILL BRUNDIGE is proud of his hound dogs. And Bill is proud to be known as a hound dog man. He is shown here with three of his dogs which he uses to hunt coons in the area.

Eagles Fall Before Bobcats 16-0 In Homecoming Battle

Little League Officials To Add Another Diamond

Little League officials received permission from the school board to construct another official sized ball field directly east of the present Little League Park, according to Dave Lipscomb, president of the group.

Lipscomb said that all available able-bodied men will be needed for the project.

In other action at an October 3 meeting of the group a delegation of Joe Gidden, Charlie Foster, H.R. King, Jim Boyce and Lipscomb was appointed to go to Hereford October 17 to meet the new district representative.

Possibility of obtaining a plot for two pony league ball fields was discussed. The association hopes that the land directly west of Conner Park will be preserved for park expansion and playing fields when needed.

The association decided to hold their fund drive in conjunction with the Babe Ruth League at the end of November. Lipscomb said a joint committee will be formed to spearhead this drive.

David Wagner is visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edell Money and daughter, Tammy. He is Mrs. Money's grandfather, and resides at Boulder, Colorado.

Mrs. Lawrence Hunnicutt and Mrs. Lloyd Hess of Amarillo recently went to Albuquerque, New Mexico, to accompany Tom Hunnicutt of Amarillo, who entered the Veteran's Hospital there as a patient.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barnard Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Measles of Tulsa, and Miss Pat Hill of Stratford. Weekend visitor was their daughter, Jackie, of White Deer.

In what started and almost finished as a nip and tuck match, the Canyon Eagles dropped their first district game Friday night to the Dimmitt Bobcats, 16-0 at Buff Stadium.

The first half was an even battle between both teams, with neither coming within dangerous range of scoring.

But in the third quarter the Eagles began a drive which looked like it would pay off. Ronny Harris snagged a Bobcat pass in their own territory and the Eagles were set up on the 16-yard-line. Fullback Bill Phillips made a two-yard carry to the 14. He charged again to the 10.

Quarterback Donald Breitling carried on the next play and fumbled. The Eagles recovered but suffered a 20-yard loss.

This was the Eagles' only serious threat to score during the whole game.

The fourth quarter rocked along until the game was nearly over with both teams holding well.

But when Canyon punted out of a tight spot the Bobcats fired up a scoring drive and had the ball on the 14-yard-line from the 50 in eight plays. Fullback Jim Cowser then ran it over in one driving play. He ran the conversion points for an 8-0 lead.

The Eagles received the next kick off with only a little over a minute to play. Price dropped back to pass but Bobcat halfback Dannie Nelson intercepted and ran all the way for the second touchdown of the game. Quarterback Jim Ratcliff passed to halfback Gene Bradley for the conversion points.

Remaining time only allowed the kickoff and one play.

STATISTICS	Canyon	Dimmitt

Punts	3/37	6/31

Buffalo Cagers Open Practice

West Texas State opened basketball practice Monday with two returning starters and a sophomore-dominated squad.

Seven sophomores are included on Coach Metz LaFollette's 13-man varsity squad, and quite naturally, he is worrying about the team's lack of experience. A 14th player--junior David Seal will join the squad at mid-term, and be available for the Border Conference schedule.

The returning starters are both guards--5-10 Sonny Blankenship, a junior from Gruver, and 6-4 Jim Curtsinger, a Hereford senior. Curtsinger averaged 11.8 points last year and Blankenship popped in 203 points for an 8.8 mark.

The team's two leading rebounders of 1960--Henry Hardaway of Claude and Bob Grace of Plainview--will not compete. Grace is out of school, and Hardaway is concentrating on his scholastic work.

The Buffs have one junior college transfer, 6-0 guard Bill Bolk from Amarillo JC. The squad is composed of three seniors, three juniors and seven sophomores.

Senior members include Curtsinger, 6-8 Jim Conner of Childress, and 6-3 Jerry Bell of Vernon. Junior products are Blankenship, 6-3 Steve Slagle of Hereford, and junior college transfer Bolk.

Sophomores on the scene are 6-7 Scottie Pierce of Post, 6-8 Frank Schaffer of Borger, 6-7 Craig Smith of Clovis, N.M., 6-1 Bruce Thompson of Hartley, 5-10 George Scott of McAdoo, 6-5 Phil Quinn of Abilene, and 6-4 Jake Knight of Borger.

The course is taught by Mrs. Margaret (Lee) Foster to 58 students.

SPEECH STUDENTS Barry Lindsey, John Brandon and Terri Doyle are shown here wearing the Indian headdresses with which they illustrated a recent talk on that subject.

Speech Pupils Are Tested

Test for the first six weeks for Speech I students was a demonstration talk, in which they talked with voice, body and hand.

Many of the talks were educational as well as entertaining. Materials developed were road maps, symphonic drama in 1962, making cookies (with a sample for each student), interior decorating, model airplanes, football signals, creative art, advertisements (the student presenting this information had samples posted on her board and presented slogans of at least 20 products), Palo Duro Canyon--its soils and formations, beauty hints for the hair, decorating and setting of both formal and informal dinner tables, first aid by a Boy Scout, stamp collection, sample of fur trimming for women's clothes, FFA--its teachings and purposes, and relics of World War II.

The course is taught by Mrs. Margaret (Lee) Foster to 58 students.

Eagles Observe Homecoming With Pep Rally, Football

Celebration of the annual homecoming at Canyon High School began with a pep rally in the school gym on Thursday, Oct. 12th at 7:30 p.m.

Clark Jarnigan acted as Master of ceremonies and Milton Morris made a short speech introducing Canyon High football players on the 1935-1936 team. Joe Gill of Canyon was one of the players on the team that was celebrating its 25th reunion.

Many former students of Canyon High returned to join their classmates and friends. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. (Pete) Harter, CHS Class of '13 were here from their home in Alamo, Calif. Mr. Harter worked with the Post Office and Mrs. Harter taught 4th grade while they were residents of Canyon.

Also attending the re-union pep-rally were Mrs. Helen Long of Arizona, Class of '38, and Charles Riding Sloan, Class of '47 from Weatherford.

A special homecoming assembly was held Friday Oct. 13 in the school Auditorium. Joe Gibson, Supt. of Schools introduced visiting ex-students. Newton Harrell, Class of '18 presented an address, and nominees for homecoming Queen were introduced.

Following the assembly, the Future Homemakers of America held a reception in the homemaker department for all Ex-Students. The Homemaker Department is headed by Mrs. Clara Long and Mrs. Guylene Stover.

The game between Canyon and Dimmitt took place Friday night at 7:30 in Buffalo Stadium. During the half-time coronation of Lee Ruth Wiggins as queen took place, and the introduction of her court was made. Attendees to the Queen were Ocine Chism, Barbara Erwin, Sharon Franklin and Vickie Weaver.

Immediately following the game, a social was held for all Ex-Students and their families was held in the school cafeteria and commons.
